NEW BULLETIN FORMAT:

As of today, St. Joseph's and Malia will each have our own bulletin. We will be able to have more space for more Malia news.

The Bulletin is the vehicle for parish information. If you have items which you sense should be passed on to all our parishioners, please email the information to maliapas-tor@gmail.com Items in the bulletin cannot be political in nature nor can they be free advertisements for profit making enterprises. The Bulletin goes to print no later than the Tuesday noon before the weekend.

THE ALL HALLOWS EVE, ALL SAINTS, ALL SOULS FESTIVAL:

The three day festival of Life and Resurrection was truly a remarkable event at Malia. We extend our gratitude to all who made a "Jack-O-Lantern" that contributed to the weekend Mass decorations. The Religious Education party in the Hall after Mass was a fantastic event. We extend our deepest gratitude to Wendy Cortez and her dedicated staff. The games, the food, the costumes were enjoyed by children from one year old to eighty years old. It is events like this that remind me of the parish life that many of experienced as children. We still cherish those memories.

Thank God they are not just memories. They are living realities for our children today. The Festival continued on Monday, All Saints Day, with a simple celebration of the resurrected life of our loved ones. The Festival culminated in the Ceremony of Remembering and Light at the All Souls Day Mass. Hopefully, this celebration will be a reminder to all of us that in death "life is changed, not ended".

THE BOOK OF LIFE:

During the month of November, you are invited to inscribe the names of your loved ones in this Book. Those inscribed in the Book of Life will be remembered at every November Mass.

FUND RAISERS:

The Sweet Bread sale starts this weekend. The Committee, headed by Luanna Leite and LaVern Costa, has ordered 400 loaves of Sweet Bread. There are 200 plain ($6.00 each) and 200 cinnamon ($6.50 each). They will be ready for pick-up on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving.

You are encouraged to take tickets to sell to your friends and neighbors who are not parishioners of Malia. You can take the tickets without paying for them now. If you find that you cannot sell them, you can bring them back no later than Friday November 19. We will make the unsold tickets available on the weekend of November 20-21.

Also, remember that Luanna and LaVern are planning to have a small Craft Fair sometime after Thanksgiving. If you have or can make some crafts to donate to this small craft fair, see either of them.
