SUNDAY REFLECTION

2nd Sunday of Easter or Divine Mercy Sunday

Cycle B

1st Reading-Acts 4:32-35 During the Easter season there are no readings from the Old Testament (other than the responsorial psalm). It is during this season that we read from the Acts of the Apostles and learn how the early Christian Church conducted itself. To place today’s reading into its proper context, we need to look back to Acts 2 where Peter addresses the crowd on that first Pentecost as he quotes from the prophet Joel.

2nd Reading-1 John 5:1-6 This first letter of John is believed to have been written from Ephesus toward the end of the first century (A.D. 67). In essence the letter deals with the love of God and of the brethren which are the hallmark of the Christian. Saint Jerome tells us that when John was a very old man his only message was, “little children, love one another.” When his disciples asked him why he was always saying the same thing he always answered “My children, this is what the Lord commands; if we do this nothing else is necessary.”

Gospel-John 20:19-31 Saint John writes from the point of view of Jesus fulfilling Old Testament prophecies. He seeks to strengthen the faith of the early Church. In his account of the resurrected Lord, he shows how the necessary tools to continue His work were passed on.
